

Behavior Technician Needed

Northwest Autism Center is currently accepting resumes for Applied Behavior Analysis (ABA) Behavior Technician positions. The Technician will serve individuals with a diagnosis of Autism Spectrum Disorders (ASD) and related disorders, working directly under a Board Certified Behavior Analyst (BCBA) to implement one-on-one programming with clients, collect and graph data, provide behavior support, and collaborate with staff and families. This position includes opportunity for field supervision for those pursuing certification as a BCBA.

Position Benefits

- Online and on-site training plus paid fees to become a Registered Behavior Technician (RBT)
- Paid license and renewal fees for WA Department of Health certification (CBT)
- Training provided in Applied Behavior Analysis (ABA)
- Experience working with individuals diagnosed with Autism Spectrum Disorder (ASD)
- Opportunity for BCBA field supervision hours
- Professional development for growth within the field of ABA and ASD
- Collaborative, research based, clinical environment
- Flexible schedule – ideal for students
- Full time options with medical and dental insurance
- YMCA membership discount
- Hourly pay depending on education and experience
- Mileage reimbursement

Minimum Requirements

- Experience working with children
- Ability to pass the Registered Behavior Technician (RBT) exam
- Background in special education, psychology, or a related field
- Strong interpersonal skills
- Ability to follow directions and respond to corrective feedback
- Commitment to principles of Behavior Analysis
- Ability to pass background check
- Reliable transportation
- Physically capable and able to lift up to 50lbs
- Ability to work a minimum of 10 hours per week
- Ability to commit to one year employment

Preferred Requirements

- Experience working with children/youth who have autism
- Coursework in ABA
- Experience in implementation of ABA programming
- Experience working closely with parents and families

To apply, please submit cover letter, resume with references, and copy of transcripts or documentation of ABA experience to hr@nwautism.org.

Northwest Autism Center is an equal opportunity employer. All applicants will be considered for employment without attention to race, color, religion, sex, sexual orientation, gender identity, national origin, veteran or disability status.